a. Review of 2024-2025 Proposed Budget

Mayor Boudreaux presented a PowerPoint detailing the property tax, sales tax, road maintenance and EDC percentages as they pertain to City revenues. The Mayor clarified that a Super Majority refers to Council's attendance for a vote (4 out of 5 Council Members), whereas a Simple Majority refers to the actual vote (3 out of 5 Council Members).

A review of the proposed $0.29 ad valorem tax rate versus a $0.21 rate as it pertains to the proposed budget commenced. Mayor Boudreaux asked if any additional fact-based information was requested. Mayor Boudreaux stated that zoning was a priority, and that zoning and road work cannot be completed if the ad valorem tax rate is set too low. Mayor Boudreaux stated that any "leftover" (unspent) funds go into the reserves and that if monies are needed to fund the budget, the monies come out of the reserves.

Council Member Kelli Matula stated that the City takes a huge risk of not generating enough revenue at a $0.21 ad valorem tax rate. Council Member Burns Turner stated that the City can be operated with a $0.21 ad valorem tax rate. A brief debate between Council Members Kelli Matula and Burns Turner ensued.

- b. Adoption of the Budget Ordinance for Fiscal Year 2024-2025
Consider and take action to adopt Budget Ordinance No. 2024-06 for Fiscal Year 2024-2025.

Motion by Council Member/Pro Tem Courtney Cox to adopt her "homemade" budget. At 6:35 p.m., Mayor Boudreaux paused the Council meeting to consult with the City Attorney regarding this new development. At 6:49 p.m., Mayor Boudreaux returned and stated that the Council Meeting would continue.

Council Member/Pro Tem Courtney Cox stated that the budget can be amended if a City Administrator is hired. A lengthy discussion ensued regarding Council Member/Pro Tem Courtney Cox's line-by-line proposed budget cuts. A brief debate proceeded regarding legal fees, $116,000 of unspent funds from last year and how to generate roadwork funds. Council Member Kelli Matula, upon observing the lack of a budget for Keep Simonton Beautiful (KSB), stated that KSB needs a budget and one that should be separate from other City funds.

Mayor Boudreaux reiterated Council Member/Pro Tem Courtney Cox's Motion to adopt her homemade budget. Council Member Faith Haley seconded the Motion.

Noes: Council Member Kelli Matula and Council Member Justin Boudreau
